

November Newsletter '07

Greetings,

Another great month! It's hard to believe that November is already done, in fact we're already a weekend into December! You'll find some exciting news below about: the baby, break and a banquet – thanks for reading!

Thanksgiving Break

November is one of my favorite months being in seminary. That's mainly because we get a 2 week recess in the middle of the semester for catching up on reading and celebrating Thanksgiving with family. This year we had Emily's parents fly down and spend Thanksgiving with us. We had a great time with them, sightseeing around Dallas, playing games in our apartment, and eating out more than I think I ever have.

On Thanksgiving morning, Don, Karolyn and Emily and I all watched the traditional Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade and then we spent the next 6 hours getting dinner ready. It was such a good meal: turkey, dressing, corn, potatoes, gravy, and a couple of pies. Needless to say we all need to exercise after a meal like that, and Emily and I are just now finishing up the leftovers! We're so thankful that Don and Karolyn got to come and spend this time with us – we just cherish family and love seeing them.

FBC Frisco's Missions Banquet

With each passing month we get closer and closer to finishing up school and heading to the mission field. This month held a unique opportunity for us to present our mission goals with our church as we were the main speakers for our '07 Missions Banquet. Our church continues to branch out in its dedication to missions and becoming a missional church, and we look forward to how a partnership with FBC can be instrumental in giving us a sending body of support and encouragement. We were able to show everyone pictures and video of the ministry of CMA, and share our conviction to provide Biblical education and pastoral training to the church leaders of the Caribbean. The banquet was another successful step in mobilizing the people of God to reach the nations for Christ.

Update

Missions support, Family visiting, Time off from school – this month really was wonderful. We also had another exciting piece of news, which is that we found out that we'll be having a baby BOY! Emily and I both wanted a girl, but we secretly hoped it would be a boy! There is a whole new level of excitement when you find out what you're having! We're halfway there – keep us in your prayers as the adventure is only beginning!

Prayers and Praises

Praise for such good response and turn out for our missions banquet and for the support and encouragement from our home church.

Praise for a healthy report on our last sonogram this month

Praise for safe travel and a wonderful visit with the Pfeisters

Praise for the Lord's continued hand of protection and provision for our family and our church

Pray for all the upcoming events that live in December! We'll be traveling to Ohio and then Wisconsin – in fact you can plan on our next prayerletter coming a little bit into January '08.

Also pray with us for all the needs of loved ones and friends undergoing surgery and illness this coming Christmas season.

We love you all, and Merry Christmas!

Thank you for keeping up with us and our progress in ministry. We so value your prayers and support, and we would ask you to take a moment and pray for our journey and how you can play a part. To find out more CLICK HERE.
